(Oak Brook, IL – August 30, 2017) – Oxford CARES, the community support arm of Oxford Bank & Trust, is collecting supplies for flood victims in southeastern Texas. Donated items will be collected at the bank's six branch offices through September 28. The supplies will then be directly delivered by an Oxford Bank officer to the stricken area of Texas.

Oxford Bank requests the following items for this relief effort: Bottled water, bleach, bleach wipes, sport drinks and diapers.

The donations will be accepted at the bank's offices:

ADDISON – Lake Street Branch at Lake St. & Marcus Dr. and Addison Road Branch at Addison Rd. & Lake St.

NAPERVILLE – Route 59 Branch at Route 59 & 83rd St. and Book Road Branch at 75th St. & Book Rd.

PLAINFIELD – Plainfield Branch at Route 59 & 135th St.

WESTMONT – Cass Avenue at 65th St.

“Our hearts are broken for the people impacted by the flooding,” said Bruce Glawe, president and CEO of Oxford Bank. “Our employees at Oxford Bank felt compelled to do something about this so we have organized a campaign to collect items at our branches. We ask our customers and the communities we serve to join us in this effort.”

Senior Vice President Mike Pawlak, commercial lending manager, has organized the drive on behalf of Oxford CARES and will personally oversee delivery of the donations to the Houston area on September 29.

“It's been heartbreaking to see the anguish of victims of Hurricane Harvey,” said Pawlak. “We invite everyone to donate these items and we'll ensure they get into the hands of people who need them.”

Oxford Bank & Trust (www.oxford.bank) is a full service community bank with headquarters in Oak Brook. Offering personal and business banking services with highly personalized customer service, it operates six branch offices in Addison, Naperville, Plainfield and Westmont.
