(Oak Brook, IL – September 7, 2017) – Jill Cataldo says she can “Change the way you shop – forever.” Cataldo will discuss her super couponing strategies at two upcoming free seminars presented by Oxford Bank & Trust.

Cataldo’s couponing strategies result in maximizing grocery savings. “You can purchase hundreds of dollars worth of groceries for just pennies,” she said. She will help people learn which stores allow you to stack numerous coupons, how to track sales and discounts online and even “how to get the store to pay you to shop.”

Cataldo has been featured on ABC’s Nightline, Inside Edition, the CBS Earl Show, ABC News, Fox News and many other media outlets. She reaches 20 million people nationwide in her syndicated newspaper column. Now she is scheduled to share her methods at Oxford Bank.

The free seminars will be held on Sept. 21 at the Plainfield branch office, 13440 S. Route 59 and on Sept. 26 at the Addison branch office at Lake St. and Marcus Drive.

Both seminars will run from 6:00 – 7:30 p.m.

The events are free but reservations are required. Reservations can be made at Oxford Bank’s branch offices or online at www.oxford.bank/about/oxford-life. Seating is limited so early registration is encouraged.

The Super Couponing seminars are presented through the bank’s Oxford Life program which produces programs and activities that are “engaging, educating and entertaining” for people of all ages and interests.

Oxford Bank & Trust (www.oxford.bank) is a full service community bank with headquarters in Oak Brook. Offering personal and business banking services with highly personalized customer service, it operates six branch offices in Addison, Naperville, Plainfield and Westmont.
